

Institute of Medicine

Committee on Valuing Community-Based, Non-Clinical Prevention
Policies and Wellness Strategies

December 5, 2011
Embassy Suites Hotel
900 10th Street, NW
Washington, D.C.

Open Session Agenda

8:30-8:45	Welcome Robert Lawrence, Committee Chair Professor of Environmental Health Sciences, Health Policy, and International Health Director, Center for a Livable Future Bloomberg School of Public Health
8:45-9:15	Framework for Evaluating Health Promotion projects Brenda Spencer Institute of Social and Preventive Medicine University of Lausanne Switzerland
9:15-9:45	Discussion
9:45-10:15	Designing and Evaluating Health Promotion Programs: the PIPE approach Nicolaas Pronk Vice President Center for Health Promotion HealthPartners
10:15-10:45	Discussion
10:45-11:00	BREAK
11:00-12:15	Issues and Challenges in Assigning Value to Prevention
11:00-11:20	Steven H. Woolf, MD, MPH Director, Center for Human Needs Virginia Commonwealth University
11:20-11:40	Tyler Norris Senior Advisor, Community Benefit Kaiser Permanente

Convener, Advancing the Movement

11:40-12:15 Discussion

12:15-1:15	LUNCH
-------------------	--------------

1:15-1:45 Weight Loss Program Savings for Medicare
Kenneth Thorpe
Chair, Department of Health Policy and Management
Rollins School of Public Health
Emory

1:45-2:15 Discussion

2:15-2:35 Community-Based Program Perspective on Assigning Value
Veva Islas-Hooker, MPH
Regional Program Coordinator
Central California Regional Obesity Prevention Project

2:35-3:00 Discussion

3:00	ADJOURN
-------------	----------------