Individually Authored Perspectives by Topic

Ideas for policies, strategies, and investments to improve community health

On the role of communities

Iton, A. An example of effecting change through community, movement-building, and scaling up. Commentary.

Etz, R. 2014. Engaging the public through communities of solution and collaborative empowerment
Select Workshop Proceedings

Community Violence as a Population Health Issue: Proceedings of a Workshop (2017)

Metrics that Matter For Population Health Action: Workshop Summary (2016)

The Role and Potential of Communities in Population Health Improvement: Workshop Summary (2014)

Supporting a Movement for Health and Health Equity: Lessons from the History of Social Movements: Workshop Summary (2014)

About These Materials

Proceedings of a Workshop
Proceedings of a Workshop and Proceedings of a Workshop—in Brief, chronicle the presentations and discussions at a workshop, symposium, or other convening event. The statements and opinions contained in these publications are those of the participants and have not been endorsed by other participants, the planning committee, or the National Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine.

Perspectives
Perspectives, published by the National Academy of Medicine (NAM), are individually authored by Roundtable and Forum members and outside experts in health and health care. The views expressed in these papers are those of the authors and not necessarily of the authors’ organizations or of the NAM. Perspectives are intended to help inform and stimulate discussion. They have not been subjected to the review procedures of and are not reports of the NAM or the National Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine.